Special Despitch to The Sun.

Boston, Oct. 26.—Boston College and Camp Devens football teams, each playing its first game, had a rough and tumble battle at Braves' Field to-day, the college boys scoring two touchdowns and a goal and winning 13 to 0.

Boston College showed much the better team play, having had the advantage of more practice, but the goldlers have good possibilities. Corrigan, the Boston College quarterback, played brilliantly, his handling and running back of kicks opening the way for Boston's scores.

Devens once reached Boston's 5 and David Warn's To Play New London.
